

New Jean's Style Center

New Jean's Style Center Opens Friday in Manhattan with Fashion Show

Jean's Style Center will open tomorrow at 304 12th St., Manhattan Beach. J. L. Jean announced today. This new location is directly opposite the Bank of America, and just one door off Highland Ave.

California modern is the architectural style of this new store for both men and women. It was designed by Bob Jean for casual shopping, and is unique in its arrangement, display and layout. Soft California colors dominate. There is liberal parking space available on all sides of the new store.

J. L. Jean opened his first store in Hermosa Beach in 1941 and has always enjoyed an excellent reputation in both style and merchandise and the friendly atmosphere of his stores. In 1946 he opened another store in Manhattan Beach at 1127 Manhattan Ave. He is closing this store with the opening of the new unit Friday.

Democrats Open Headquarters in Torrance Sunday

Official opening of the Democratic headquarters and "No on Proposition No. 18" forces, will be held Sunday at 2 p.m. at 1639 Cabrillo Ave., according to Thirvin D. Fleetwood, vice chairman of the 68th Assembly District.

Guest speakers will include Congressman Cecil R. King, Assemblyman Vincent Thomas, Alan Cranston, candidates for State controller, Mayor Albert Isen, and other political candidates.

Fleetwood will serve as general campaign chairman for the Torrance area. Rene Dean will serve as secretary and Dick Floyd will act as coordinator for various candidates.

Edwin Charles Howes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Howes of 21505 Ellinwood Dr. has enrolled as a Missions major at the Bible Institute of Los Angeles, Inc.

Human Values in Atom Age Class

Mrs. Mary Anagnostis, Torrance resident and instructor in philosophy at El Camino Junior College, this fall will lead an advanced lecture-discussion group in studying "Human Values in the Atomic Age" for University of California Extension's department of Liberal Arts.

Mrs. Anagnostis will meet with enrolled seminar participants for ten consecutive weekly sessions starting Oct. 9, from 8 to 10 p.m. at the Malaga Cove School, 385 Via Almer, Palos Verdes.

Believes Son Hurt in Mexico Auto Accident

A worried mother has written Postmaster Clara Conners in an effort to find out what happened to her son, reportedly injured in an auto accident in Mexico. Mrs. Conner's said the son's name is William A. Floyd, a Torrance resident.

His mother, Mrs. Ben Floyd of Bradford, Ohio, said that she understands that Floyd's wife, Ann, was killed in the crash, and that her son was taken to a Mexican hospital where he was not permitted to see anyone.

Lomita League to Nominate New Officers

The Lomita Civic League will hold a business meeting at American Legion Hall, 24702 Narbonne Ave. at 8 p.m. today. Marshall Pine, President, will name a nominating committee to choose candidates for organization officers for 1959.

At the October meeting the problem of meeting places at times when the agenda includes matters other than an address or other educational feature, thus making school buildings unavailable, will be discussed. Advisability of returning to the original schedule of four meetings per year will be considered.

Lecture Series

The adult education department of the South Bay Union High School District will again present an illustrated forum and lecture series beginning Oct. 6 in the Redondo High School Auditorium.
